CAHS SUMMER BRIDGE PROGRAM APPLICATIONS AVAILABLE

ST. THOMAS, USVI – The Charlotte Amalie High School (CAHS) administration invites incoming ninth graders to participate in the CAHS Summer Bridge Program in preparation for their high school academic careers.

The program consists of two components:

1. A week-long orientation session that provides tips, strategies and general information to assist students in planning their path through high school.

Students are encouraged to attend during one (1) of the following sessions:

Week 1: June 27 - July 5

Week 2: July 8 - July 12

Week 3: July 15 - July 19

Week 4: July 22 - July 26

2. A month-long academic support session that will provide assistance for students seeking to enhance math and reading skills. This segment also offers science enrichment activities.

The academic support session will take place June 27 – July 30.

Parents are encouraged to take full advantage of this opportunity to give their children a jumpstart for high school success.

A registration fee of $25 is required to cover insurance while the student is enrolled in the program. Applications are available at the school's main office.

For more information, contact Charlotte Amalie High School at (340) 774-0780.
